TURNING DREAMS INTO OPPORTUNITIES

CONAPROCAM is the national cocoa producers' organisation of Cameroon, located in Yaoundé. It was established in 2002 out of the need for agricultural assistance for the cocoa and coffee sectors in the country. The confederation acts as an umbrella organisation for cocoa producers in the Centre, Littoral and South regions of Cameroon.

A total of 14 cocoa producing federations and cooperatives

CONAPROCAM represents over 1,200 people

Started in 2023 with the administrative process to obtain an export license to Europe

TRIAS strengthens entrepreneurial organisations around the world, that in turn support local entrepreneurs and farmers.

Through tailored support for each partner, members get access to advice, small loans or training. This enables them to start a business or grow further.

- Over 50 years supporting Member Based Organisations (MBOs) around the world
- Reaching 5.5 million people worldwide
- Strengthening 118 entrepreneurial organisations

"Trias aims for food security and increased incomes for farming families, utilizing cocoa's transformative potential to improve livelihoods sustainably." Richard Diphanga, cocoa advisor for Trias Central Africa

OUR PARTNERSHIP

Trias and CONAPROCAM collaborate closely, offering support to enhance the capacity and efficiency of the organization in Cameroon. Through tailored training programs and strategic guidance, Trias supports CONAPROCAM to better serve its members, aiding in administrative procedures for cocoa export and ensuring financial accountability. Trias also facilitates networking opportunities and knowledge sharing among CONAPROCAM members, fostering a collaborative environment for sustainable growth and development in the cocoa sector.
