

Cultivating Cocoa Communities, Changing Lives

Taste the story of:

TRIAS

TURNING DREAMS INTO OPPORTUNITIES

KALLARI

rooted in the heart of Ecuador's Amazon basin since 2003, represents the heritage and future of 340 Kichwa families. Our collective excels the art of cultivating premier aroma cocoa and creating organic chocolate.

Works with more than 300 members who produce cocoa, vanilla and guayusa

60% are women and 10% are young people

The Kichwa women are the "guardians" of the ancestral system in order to conserve the biome

TRIAS strengthens entrepreneurial organisations around the world, that in turn support local entrepreneurs and farmers.

Through tailored support for each partner, members get access to advice, small loans or training. This enables them to start a business or grow further.

- Over 50 years supporting Member-Based Organisations (MBOs) around the world
- Reaching 5.5 million people worldwide
- Strengthening 118 entrepreneurial organisations

"We also take pride in producing vanilla, cinnamon, guayusa in our chakras, making it a culturally-rich enterprise that promises growth and prosperity for our community".

OUR PARTNERSHIP

Since 2022, Kallari has forged a strategic alliance with Trias, amplifying their organisational progress. Together, they reinforce governance, cooperative matters, and enhance technical proficiency among members while prioritizing women and youth inclusion. Notably, Kallari spearheads the support of the Amazonian chakra, an age-old sustainable production model chiefly overseen by Kichwa women, or chakramamas. This partnership heralds a new era of sustainable growth in the Amazon.

Contact details

- Carlos Poso - President
- Phone: +593 628 47050
- info@kallari.com.ec